SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information. SPRING CONFERENCES are designated by a (*). FALL CONFERENCES are unmarked.—EDITOR.

DEATH ROLL

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

MEMOIR

IN MEMORIAM

LUTHER BARTON WILSON

Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Born in Baltimore, Md., November 14, 1856. Died in Baltimore, June 5, 1928.

Luther Barton Wilson, for twenty-four years one of the outstanding bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church and in many civic and patriotic movements, was born in Baltimore on November 14, 1856, the son of Henry Merryman and Eliza Kelsoe (Hollingsworth) Wilson, and was educated in private schools in that city and at Dickinson College, receiving his A.B. degree in 1875.

He then studied medicine and received his M.D. in 1877. In 1878, however, he turned from medicine to the ministry and entered the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church on trial. He was ordained a deacon in 1880 and an elder in 1882. He filled pastorates at Hancock, Woodberry and in Baltimore and in Washington and was for several years a presiding elder. Finally, at the General Conference of 1904, at Los Angeles, he was elected a bishop and assigned to the Chattanooga, Tenn., Area. Four years after he was transferred to Philadelphia, and four years later to the Metropolitan District, with his residence in New York, and here he remained to the end of his active career.

He was one of the organizers of the Anti-Saloon League, being chairman of the committee which issued the call for its first national convention in 1895, all which time he was a presiding elder in Washington. On the organization of the league at that convention he was elected its vice-president, and in 1901 he was elected its president to succeed Hiram Price, who died, and held that position for many years.

He was much in demand as a preacher on anniversaries and other special occasions and responded to such calls to the fullest extent permitted by time and by the state of his health. In April, 1928, he undertook to preside, as his last episcopal function, over the annual meeting of the Newark, N. J., Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but was compelled by failing strength to retire from the chair before the final session. A few weeks later he went to Kansas City to attend the quadrennial General Conference and presented to that body the pastoral address of the Board of Bishops, but was too ill to finish the reading and Bishop Richardson did it for him, and too weak to accept the testimonial which was to be given in his honor.

He was a director of the Church Peace Union and a trustee of Dickinson College and Drew Theological Seminary. He received the degree of D.D. from Dickinson College, that of LL.D. from Dickinson and from Wesleyan University and the University of Maryland, and that of Litt.D. from Syracuse University. He married Miss Louise J. Turner, of Baltimore, in 1881, and had two sons and a daughter: Arthur Stanley Wilson, Luther Barton Wilson, Jr., and Juliette Turner Wilson.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF PREACHERS

NOTE.—The figures preceding the names show the year when each man was received into the Conference on Trial, or when he came in on Credentials from another denomination. When there are no figures it shows that the work is not yet complete.

The names marked with a * will not appear next year. They have been removed either by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, expulsion, or by transfer to a Fall Conference. Black-face type indicates the Preacher is Retired. The small figures indicate the column.—EDITOR.
